THE WORKING PEOPLE. -It is stated that 1,100 operatives have been thrown out of omployment in New York by the closing of a carpet factory. The wages were reduced ten per cent., the operatives refused to accede to the reduction, and so the factory was closed. The male spinners of Full River have issued a circular to the agents of manufactories, remonstrating against the twelve per cent. reduction of wages recently made there, on the ground that provisions and rents are higher now than they were two years ago. It is reported that, while it is true that many thousand workmen in the leading American cities are without employment, the destitution which results bears no comparison to that of London and Paris. A Paris correspondent says that scarcity of work and excessive dearness of provisions have more than doubled the number of poor this year; but it is from London that the cry of poverty comes with most distinotness. A philanthropic physician of that city reports that "hundreds of persons are quietly and calmly dying by inches." In a single street of 155 houses there were found to be upwards of 100 sick persons. The origin of the sickness and increased mortality is the absolute want of the necessaries of life, food and clothing. The committee raised in Lancashire, England, during the cotton famine, have decided to divide the surplus fund remaining in their hands, amounting to near-1y $50,000, rateably among a given number of the principal towns in Lancashire, in which the famine was most severely experienced, to aid public infirmaries and dispensaries, taking population as the basis of the apportionment.

FOR THE

WITH Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital. Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes and Homorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

THERE is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in remance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a botter idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pa-thos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Pie turesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here brilliantly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully inter-woven in this work of literary art. Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a
